

Welcome

- Welcome to the latest version of the newsletter.
- Our centres are now fully open. We are very happy to see the staff and learners.
- Please help stop the spread of disease by washing your hands.

Inaugural Review Update

- This took place from Monday 13th December to Friday 17th December 2021.
- This was a review of our Quality Assurance systems.
- There was a panel of six people doing the review. They met with KCETB learners.

Minister Simon Harris

- The Minister that represents Further Education came to visit KCETB in November.
- He met with learners and apprentices that are completing courses in KCETB.

Learner feedback

- It is important for learners to give their opinion and have their voice heard.
- KCETB has developed a new system for gathering feedback.
- Please complete your feedback. There will be online and paper options for learners.

KCETB Guidance and Information

- If you want to know about options when you finish your course, you can talk to an adult education guidance counsellor.
- You can transfer or progress to another course or ask about career options.
- There are offices in Kilkenny and Carlow.

KCETB Websites for Learners

- There is a KCETB Quality Assurance \(QA\) website with information on QA activities.
- Learner support information is available on the Welcome to FET SharePoint.
- Learners should look at the websites for useful information and support.
